CAN I ACCESS THE CLASSES FROM ANY COMPUTER? CAN I TAKE THE COURSES FROM ANY DEVICES?

Yes, you can access from any computer. It is important to have elements such as headphones, microphone, webcam and a stable internet connection.

WHAT IS AN ECERTIFICATE? (INCOMING)

The eCertificates are structured by virtual regular courses currently offered by the university's undergraduate and graduate programs. As an added value, some MOOCs (massive open online courses) have been included in its structure that open the possibility for participants to obtain an additional certificate once they are approved and whose process must be managed through UROSARIOX, the online course platform of the university.

ECertificates have a minimum and maximum number of credits (from 12 to 16) and their courses do not include prerequisites.

WHAT ARE OPEN COURSES? (INCOMING)

They are open courses to obtain credits or short-term academic experiences that focus on a particular topic chosen by the participants.

- They are validated by credits according to the number of hours, the type of academic work and the contributions that are eventually generated.
- Virtual visits or online discussions with experts and academics that enrich the training process.
- Participants can take a single open course or can select two or more courses that, under the same scheme, can lead to the eCertificates offered by the university.

DO I GET RECOGNITION FOR TAKING PART IN VIRTUAL EXCHANGE ACTIVITIES?

Outgoing: Yes, you can validate credits of your study program with the classes that you attend during your virtual exchange. In addition, you will receive a transcript from the host university that will demonstrate your participation in this program.

Incoming: Yes, you can validate credits of your study program with the classes that you attend during your Virtual Exchange. In addition, if you choose one of the eCertificates and meet all the requirements, you can obtain the corresponding certificate.
