

ENGLISH FOR SPECIFIC PURPOSES WORKSHOPS 2026-1

English Area offers free, practical workshops aimed at improving oral expression skills in English for academic or workplace settings. These workshops are conducted remotely in synchronous sessions with English Area instructors. They are specifically designed for Rosarista postgraduate students, faculty, and researchers with an intermediate B1 level of English.

Workshops on Oral Expression in Academic Settings

The content of these workshops covers the use of formal and informal language, the analysis and presentation of information, debates, frequently mispronounced words, among other topics.

Workshops on Oral Expression in the Workplace

In addition to improving fluency and pronunciation, these workshops help develop specific communication skills for making short presentations (such as pitches), summarizing meeting conclusions, and interacting professionally over the phone.

How to Participate:

The workshops have limited spots and require prior registration.
Registration is done through E-Aulas

Workshop schedule 2026-1

All sessions are held at the same time,
on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 4:00 p.m to 5:00 p.m,
via remote access on Zoom.

March

Date	TOPIC	Content
Tuesday, March 10	Effective pronunciation	Enhance your clarity and confidence in speaking by mastering key pronunciation techniques.
Thursday, March 12	Beginning and ending a phone call	Learn effective strategies for starting and concluding phone conversations professionally.
Tuesday, March 17	Reporting information in a meeting	Develop skills to accurately and concisely report information during meetings.
Thursday, March 19	The Persuasive Speech	Gain techniques for crafting and delivering compelling and convincing speeches.
Tuesday, March 24	Linking ideas in short interactions	Improve your ability to seamlessly connect ideas during brief conversations.
Thursday, March 26	Managing Speech Anxiety	Learn strategies to manage and reduce anxiety when speaking in public or academic settings.

E-aulas registration link

April

Date	TOPIC	Content
Tuesday, April 7	Intonation matters	Understand the importance of intonation and how it affects the meaning and effectiveness of your speech.
Thursday, April 9	Leaving a voice message	Master the art of leaving clear, concise, and effective voice messages
Tuesday, April 14	Improving your fluency	Enhance your fluency in speaking through practical exercises and techniques.
Thursday, April 16	Effective pronunciation II	Refine your pronunciation for greater clarity and impact in communication.
Tuesday, April 21	Communication and the art of pitching	Learn how to effectively pitch ideas and communicate persuasively.
Thursday, April 23	Intonation matters II	Deepen your understanding of intonation and its role in effective communication.
Tuesday, April 28	Contrasting information	Learn how to use hedging language in academic conversations
Thursday, April 30	Clarifying and requesting clarification in discussions	Learn how to ask for and provide clarification effectively to ensure clear and accurate communication in professional settings.

Workshop schedule 2026-1

All sessions are held at the same time,
on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 4:00 p.m to 5:00 p.m,
via remote access on Zoom.

May

Date	TOPIC	Content
Tuesday, May 5	Connecting and linking reasons	Enhance your ability to logically connect and link reasons in your speech.
Thursday, May 7	The Persuasive Speech II	Advanced techniques for delivering even more powerful and persuasive speeches.
Tuesday, May 12	Answering questions	Improve your skills in answering questions clearly and confidently in various settings.
Thursday, May 14	Presenting conclusions	Learn how to effectively present and summarize conclusions in your presentations.
Tuesday, May 19	Advanced pronunciation	Improve your pronunciation and intonation to enhance clarity and confidence when speaking in academic
Thursday, May 21	Giving and receiving constructive feedback	Develop essential skills for providing and responding to feedback in a professional and supportive manner.

E-aulas registration link

@rosario_english_area

@rosarioenglisharea